

STEP 1: Go to www.brentwoodca.gov/cleanup

STEP 2: Click the quick link Register online for a date/time.
