Frequently Asked Questions:

Are a business license and a Business Tax Certificate the same thing?

Yes. The terms business license and Business Tax Certificate are interchangeable.

Do I need a Business Tax Certificate for a home based business?

Yes, a business tax certificate is required. If you're operating (or plan to operate) a business from your home in Brentwood, please print and complete the Home Occupation Zoning Review Application \(HOZR\). The City encourages zoning review prior to obtaining a Business Tax Certificate. The HOZR Application is submitted to Community Development Department, inside the Permit Center at City Hall. Reference Municipal Code 17.840

I have a rental property in Brentwood; do I need to obtain a Business Tax Certificate?

Yes. "Business" means and includes professions, trades, vocations, rentals, leases, enterprises, establishments, and occupations. The Business Tax Certificate Application – Rental will need to be completed and submitted. The "Gross Receipts" (application line #30) is the amount of rent the landlord anticipates collecting in the upcoming year. The "Business Location" (application line #2) is the address of the rental property. Municipal Code section 5.04.040.

Will I need a fictitious business name?

If any name is used other than your personal proper name, you must register the business name with the County Clerk Recorder to get a Fictitious Business Name Statement. Residential landlords will use their first and last name as the name of the business, if they do not have a fictitious name. For more information on fictitious business name, contact the Contra Costa County Clerk's office at 925-335-7900.

What are Gross Receipts? (Line #27 of the Business Tax Certificate Application)

Gross receipts are the total amount received from all sources relating to business conducted within City of Brentwood. For businesses with headquarters located outside the City of Brentwood, total gross receipts shall be deemed to be related to business conducted within city limits, unless an apportionment of gross receipts is requested by the business pursuant to Municipal Code section 5.04.040 F.

How do I calculate the business tax?

Please visit the City's Tax Calculator at: www.brentwoodca.gov/blcalc

What is the State Mandated Fee? (Line #30 of the Business Tax Certificate application)

Senate Bill 1186, License Fee and Use for Construction-Related Accessibility

On September 19, 2012, Governor Brown signed into law Senate Bill 1186 (SB1186), which added a state mandated fee of $1 on all applicants, newly issued and renewed business licenses. AB1379 was signed, extending SB1186 and increasing the fee to $4, January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2023. AB2164 was signed, extending SB1186 fee of $4 indefinitely.
